

FRIENDS OF THE ADAIR COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNUAL FUN FEST

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2011: 6:00 P.M.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH BASEMENT: 300 E. WASHINGTON ST.
KIRKSVILLE, MO

HEAR and VISIT WITH SUZANNE BEAKY
INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN ILLUSTRATOR.

Suzanne Beaky grew up in Gahanna, Ohio, and studied illustration at Columbus College of Art and Design. Her expressive illustrations are commissioned by children's book, magazine and educational publishers worldwide. She received the Durham, North Carolina, Arts Council Emerging Artist Award and the Ellen Dolan Memorial Mentorship Award from the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators-Missouri. Until recently, Suzanne lived in Kirksville. She and her husband currently reside in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

Google: Suzanne Beaky illustrator (to visit her web site and links.)

HOMEMADE PIE, COFFEE, TEA

Program and Refreshments all for $5.00

Proceeds go to the Friends of the Adair County Public Library

To support children's reading programs and other Library activities.

SEE, HEAR ABOUT, AND PURCHASE MOST RECENT BOOK.

First United Methodist Church Basement, 300 E. Washington (Handicapped Accessible & Elevator)

Thursday, October 20, 2011, 6:00 p.m.

Tickets available at the Library or at the door.