Grandpas and Grandmas Galore: Which one is perfect for your family?

These three books from Flashlight Press all feature wonderful grandpas or grandmas. We're so pleased to share our grandparents with you.

Grandpa for Sale - NEW - April 2007

by Dotti Enderle and Vicki Sansum, illustrated by T. Kyle Gentry
32 pp, HC, $15.95, 11" x 8.5"

Eleven-year-old Lizzie is minding the family antique store while her grandpa naps on a spindly sofa. When Mrs. Larchmont enters and begins her buying spree, she refuses to leave without bargaining for the one antique not for sale...Grandpa!

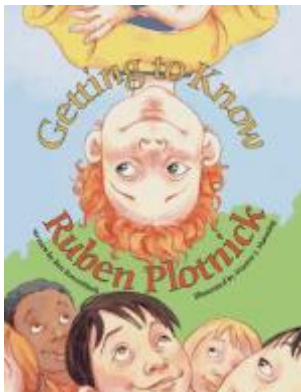

Will Lizzie agree to sell Grandpa or are there some things that money just can't buy?

"...destined to become a favorite of children of all ages...."
-L. Suzanne Lieurance, Writing for Children Center

"This is definitely a must have for those rainy spring days."
-Nancy A. Cavanaugh, Fandangle Magazine

Getting to Know Ruben Plotnick

by Roz Rosenbluth, illustrated by Maurie Manning
32 pp, HC, $15.95, 8.5" x 11"

Spend an enjoyable 10 minutes listening to Andrea and Mark discuss Ruben Plotnick and Grandma Rosie on www.JustOneMoreBook.com ("a podcast about the children's books we love and why we love them, recorded in our favorite coffee shop"), at <http://tinyurl.com/25t4b5>.

"We just read this book for the first time last night, and everybody was just so inspired and excited..." -JustOneMoreBook.com

Wishes for One More Day

by Melanie Pastor, illustrated by Jacqui Grantford
32 pp, HC, $15.95, 8.5" x 11"

"Wishes for One More Day... is a sensitive story of the loss of a grandparent. ...there are no easy answers here, but a very lovely marking of the endless special moments these children shared with their grandfather... a very strong addition to books available on loss, tenderly articulating the "wishes" we all have."

-Esty Schachter, Ithaca Child

"Share this book with your family to initiate conversations about loss and grief and to help establish the importance of the everyday joy of life."

-Beverly J. Rowe, My Shelf.com
